

Panel will delve into downtown issues

Kansas City Business Journal: October 20, 2003.

In an effort to further increase the number of residents Downtown, the University of Missouri-Kansas City will host a panel about the future of downtown Kansas City.

The panel will include Kansas City Mayor Kay Barnes, City Councilman Troy Nash and UMKC economic professor Mathew Forstater, UMKC said in a written release. Housing and economic development will be the focus of the discussion.

The event is scheduled for 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Monday at UMKC's University Center, Room 106, 51st Street and Rockhill Road. It is free and open to the public.