TRAVELING MAN

In the past, Kansas City Councilwoman Teresa Loar has done more traveling than her council colleagues. But Councilman Troy Nash is rapidly accumulating frequent-flier miles.

Last month Nash traveled with a delegation to Hong Kong to present an award to South African Archbishop Desmond Tutu. Nash currently is accompanying a delegation to Cuba.

People to People International is paying Nash's expenses. He serves as a board member of the organization, which promotes international cultural, business and educational exchanges.
